Notes and Comments.

THE Conference was a great success.

THE Lord willing, there will be a National Conference in 1896.

BROTHER I. D. Bowman reports thirteen accessions, ten of whom were received during the camp meeting.

HAVE you purchased your K. C. Topic cards yet? Send your order to J. O. Talley, Milledgeville, Ill.

SISTER Sarah Keim acknowledges with thanks, the receipt of a package of goods from the sisters of Cornell, Ill.

EDUCATIONAL day, the third Sabbath in January 1896. We expect to prepare special programs for the occasion.

THE sermon by Sister Sterling on Sabbath morning, and the one by Dr. McGregor on Sabbath evening, were greatly appreciated.

DR. Keeler McGregor's address for sometime, will be Ashland, Ohio. He is ready to respond to calls for preaching and lectures.

THE congregation at Huntingdon, Ind. will hold Communion services on the evening of September 1. The usual invitation is extended.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

The Quarterlies for fourth quarter 1895 will be ready in a few days. We have sent out order blanks to all our schools, and you will save us much work if you will use them in making out your order. It is not necessary to emphasize the importance of every school patronizing the literature of the Brethren church. This is the duty of each school claiming to be a Brethren school.

We would also urge the importance of sending cash with your order when at all possible. You will save us much time and expense. The money required to make these quarterlies, is all paid out before they are ordered, and a prompt remittance will render a very practical help to the publishing house. Our supplies for the coming quarter are the same as before.

Brethren Quarterly, per quarter,	4	cents.
Youth's " " " "	4	"
Our Little Folks, " " "	4	"
Cheering Words, " " "	7	"

Send in your order at once and the goods will be forwarded in time for the beginning of the fourth quarter.

BROTHER David Augustine, treasurer of the National Mission Board, acknowledges the receipt of $2.70, from Dunlaps, Ind., through Ida Simmonds, and $7.00 from Mount Pleasant congregation, through R. R. Teeter.

THE King's Children Topic cards for the year beginning October 1, are ready and will be mailed promptly on receipt of order. Every K. C. Society should use these cards, and not sparingly, either. Purchase enough of them so that you can hand one to a stranger when he happens in your society. The new constitution is also ready. It should be in the hands of every K. C. Society. Price of Topic card, $1.00 per 100; constitutions 10 cents each, $1.00 per dozen. Address J. O. Talley, Milledgeville, Ill.

THE Executive Committee has not yet decided where the next Conference will be held, but in our opinion there is but one place for it, and that place is Ashland, Ohio.

WE greatly enjoyed the presence of our brethren and sisters during Conference, but our friends will not consider us partial, if we mention the names of Sisters Beachly, Williams, and Fike, from Meyersdale, Pa., also Brother and Sister Mackey.

THE NEW HYMN BOOK. We have had numerous inquiries concerning the New Hymn Book, in reply to which we have this to say: The music and hymns have to a large extent, been gathered, but it will require money to publish the book, which we do not have. Does the brotherhood really want the book? Kindly inform us on postal card the number of books your congregation will purchase at 60 cents each. That is, in case the book is satisfactory. This will give us some idea as to the extent of the need of a Brethren Hymn Book. Can we get fifty congregations to pledge themselves for anywhere between $10 and $15 worth of books? Please write at once.

TO OUR SUNDAY-SCHOOLS. We much regret that we were unable to get out a Cheering Words for Sabbath, September 8. Conference rushed upon us before we were ready, and a break in machinery delayed us. The paper sent out last Monday is dated September 8, but will now have to be used for September 15. The next number will contain an illustrated article by B. C. Moomaw, entitled, "Having Some Fun." Our Little Folks' paper was also delayed, but no number was missed. Nor was it sent too late for use on the Sabbath for which it was intended, though it was too late to be given out the Sabbath before. This week the remaining numbers of Our Little Folks and Cheering Words for September are mailed.
